In March 2021, it was announced that TikTok had partnered with Ford in order to create augmented reality features for its users through the MyFord app on iOS and Android devices. These features included a TikTok camera and a selfie camera which users could direct to their steering wheel, the MyFord screen or to their actual speedometer. In April 2021, it was announced that TikTok had partnered with Facebook to create an augmented reality selfie feature for its users through Facebook's own augmented reality application, Camera AR. The feature allows users to add visual effects, filters and stickers onto themselves in real time as they record videos or take photos of their surroundings. These features were not available for all users upon the release of the app and must be enabled on each user's device before they use them.",

On March 10, 2021, TikTok launched its advertising program. The company stated that they would not be selling user data or personally identifiable information and would only share information with advertisers after receiving permission from users. The program was launched in partnership with Housewire Media, Inc. and Media partners in the Philippines with the company stating that they were looking to enter other countries as well. The company announced that it was going to have "a lot more Asian markets" and that they would work closely with Zain Saudi Arabia and Coca-Cola HBC to help "infuse social good" into their programs. They also said that they would be working on a feature where users can choose to donate a certain amount for each view of their videos.",

After TikTok's release in the US, many celebrities started posting their own TikTok clips of themselves dancing, eating, hanging out with their friends and other activities. According to USA Today, by December 2021, over 200k+ Star was posting TikTok videos of themselves. An analysis by The Verge found that these celebrity TikTok clips were downloaded 2-4 million times each day across 10 different countries; even in countries where Instagram was banned. Celebrities including Kylie Jenner, Nicki Minaj, Harry Styles and Justin Bieber have been given official TikTok accounts by the company due to their popular video content on the platform.",

This means that if TikTok were to discover that a user had posted videos on the platform without having paid for it and requested their money back, it would be required by law to comply with the user's request and then turn over at least some of the appropriate funds. This would help ensure that users who post content on TikTok are not acting as scammers as well as potentially avoid issues with law enforcement.",

Spiegel remained as CEO of Snap Inc. while Bobby Murphy became CTO, they both still had creative control over all aspects of TikTok. Neither Toutiao nor ByteDance has revealed exactly how it plans to monetize TikTok in the long term. "I think it will take a lot of time," says Gao. "Tencent knows that and we don't make any immediate pressure for them.",

TikTok is a video sharing platform like Instagram, one of the most famous and popular social networking platforms in the world. Instagram comes with all great features that make it possible for users to share photos and videos with friends and family members through different social media platforms like Facebook, Twitter etc. In addition, some unique features of this app such as "Instagram stories", "IGTV" and "IG live streaming" are present on TikTok as well.", Musical.ly has received favorable reviews by technology critics such as TechCrunch and "Forbes". In 2021, Musical.ly was included by "The New York Times" in their list of "Inventions We Wish Were Real", with the implication that the company might be acquired for $1 billion by Facebook or Google.",

In March 2021, the French government requested that TikTok be permanently banned from Apple's App store and Google Play because of its pornographic videos. The Minister of the Interior Christophe Castaner stated that: "the goal is to force them to make changes, notably by using age verification tools." TikTok can be observed as a useful case for understanding the development of "internet culture". It could be said that while other popular social platforms like Twitter and Instagram are popular with users because of their features, it is precisely TikTok's rejection of such features that makes it so popular among young people. This is because they attribute the lack of these features to its ability to focus on the video clips themselves, and thus on the people they can "connect" with. For this reason, TikTok's success can also be attributed to it being an app driven by pure fun and entertainment.",

In February 2021, Advertising Week Europe included TikTok in their annual list of top 10 advertising trends. In order to create the ranking they compiled the results of a survey from fourth-quarter 2021 and compared it to a similar study from 2021. The study identified three key factors that contribute to the ranking: time spent on ad content, levels of engagement, and presence of ads in other formats. TikTok ranked fourth out of the ten companies; Snapchat, Instagram and Facebook took the first three spots with TikTok ranking behind Twitter due to Snapchat's immersive advertising experience.",
